WE ALL ARE AMIDST A GLOBAL PANDEMIC

More than 1,850,000 cases of Coronavirus have surfaced globally. Country-wide lockdowns are quickly expanding, triggering an avalanche of uncertainties about the future and the simple practicalities of life.

*The number of cases are as per public sources as of 4/13/2020

DISRUPTIONS IN ONLINE RETAIL

The need to stay indoors and the panic triggered by lockdowns have resulted in another phenomena--an unprecedented surge in online buying. The demand for products related to virus-protection, grocery and other essential items have risen drastically in the past few weeks.
